Superintendent's Highlights

As Wallace School District superintendent since July 1, 1998, my singular goal has been visibility within the school community. This means that I visit school sites, school events, talk with students, meet with groups of parents, walk and talk Wallace Public Schools! I said to the staff in my opening address, "I'm your Head Cheerleader." The patrons of our district need to know what we do well, what we want to do better, and how we plan to include them in the learning process.

Our community supports personal-level learning by making certain our 781 students have access to a comprehensive education, Pre K-12. We are proud that the Wallace District awarded over $250,000 in scholarships to its 56 graduates. Our community passed a $1.1 million over-ride levy. Our teachers are currently working on the first year of a two-year agreement. We seek stability so the throes of change do not interfere with making learning personal and fun!

Our efforts with the J. A. & Kathryn Albertson Foundation to raise standards and expectations for both students and teachers will help the Wallace District soar into the 21st Century.

Progress Towards Meeting District Goals

1998-99 Goals	Progress
1. Hire and facilitate the success of a new superintendent of schools	We have accomplished three of the four goals. We are in the process of setting new goals that align with our mission and vision.
2. Negotiate a two-year agreement
3. Pass an override levy that reflects planning for upcoming changes
4. Begin gathering baseline data to give our students ways to determine if they have a good, great, outstanding education

Mission

The community of Wallace School District provides personal-level learning in an inspiring atmosphere while continually striving for improvement.

Vision

In a safe, nurturing and disciplined environment, the community of Wallace School District inspires students to challenge themselves to become responsible life-long learners who are self supporting participating members of society.

All students will

- Graduate
- Be physically fit and drug free
- Understand and accept individual differences
- Either get a job or go on to further education
- Know the difference between right and wrong and choose right
- Accept only their best
